EDWARD DWIGHT EATON CHAPEL, BELOIT COLLEGE, BELOIT, WISCONSIN. Erected in 1892. Gift by Mrs. Amelia Herrick Doyon. Beloit is a non-sectarian school with its religious life centered in this building. The interior of the chapel was rehabilitated in 1938. On the walls of the chapel are various memorial tablets, including a bronze tablet memorializing the fifteen Beloit college men who gave their lives in World War I.
